Dearest Gentle Reader,

7th April 2022

The competition season is upon us yet again. While most of our illustrious league lazed during our two year isolation, some delegates spent the time honing their skills in preparation for this very event. With another convention comes, of course, a brand new diamond. There are a great many prospective diamonds this year, but this author has no doubt that the brightest gem will reveal themselves. Will it be a perfect score? Two Perfect Scores? Double Best in Shows? This weekend is rife with opportunities for our candidates to prove themselves worthy of our admiration. Let the games begin!

Yours most truly,

Magistra Whistledown

P.S. It has come to my attention that there is a new stola designer in town. Every girl and woman in the province is tripping over the others to get to her shop. Please remember: New and shiny does not equate to tried and true. You'd think we would show a little more loyalty to one of our own. I wholly endorse Iulia's shop Stylish Stolas and I encourage you all to patronize it next time you find yourself in need of a new stola.

If you're one the fence about auditioning for That's Entertainment, this is your sign! Come to Azalea tonight at 8pm. Remember that you must be able to provide your own music, and your act must be school- appropriate. A sign up sheet will be posted on Azalea's door in case you have a conflict so that you may guarantee an audition slot. TE audition results will be announced in tomorrow's Lore.

Stay tuned!
